

Indian Queens School

Our School Aims

within the Every Child Matters Agenda (see below) to:

- foster the individual's spiritual, moral and social development which includes respect for Christian values, respect for other races and religions, and respect for the environment and other people;
- develop an appreciation and wonder of our world, its diversity, complexity and richness;
- foster an interest in, and enthusiasm for, the acquisition of knowledge and the development of one's own talents and interests, in order to achieve fulfilment and enjoyment in life both as an individual and as a member of a wider community;
- contribute to all aspects of school life;
- develop the ability to reason logically, think, with a lively and enquiring mind, to question and solve problems;
- strive always to achieve our own goals throughout life;
- develop an appreciation of human achievements and aspirations;
- enjoy the day to day life of school with humour, tolerance and kindness to others;
- promote the safety and wellbeing of everyone within the school.
