Anti-Bullying Week – 12th – 16th November

All classes will take part in work around this very important subject during next week.

If you would like to find further information or talk to your child about this, there are several websites available including NSPCC, Anti-Bullying Alliance and Bullying UK.

Bullying is defined as ‘STOP’– Several Times On Purpose and children need to be encouraged to talk to an adult if they are worried

Indian Queens Band

LANTERN PARADE

30th November 2018

Following on from the success of last year's parade, we are hoping for bigger and better things this year

We are asking the whole community to join in, make your lanterns for a wonderful parade of light through the village to the Band Room

BBQ at the Band Room and we are ever hopeful that there will be enough lanterns to light the way for the reindeers to bring Father Christmas down for an early visit

The parade will start at Indian Queens School at 7pm
