COMMUNITY NEWS

Fundraising

Two of our pupils have been fundraising for The Children's Hospice - South West. They made and sold melon lollies at our summer fair, raising £29!!

The two children have also raised £46 in sponsorship for running the 5k Rainbow Run a few weeks ago. That's a total of £75!

The children spoke to a parent at the summer fair whose child is being supported by The Children's Hospice so it's great to know it really is making a difference to local families.

Well done.....

Congratulations to our pupil in Innoko class who competed in the Peninsula Schools Judo Competition on 7th July at Mullion School representing Indian Queens Primary School. He fought in 3 great fights, winning all to gain a lovely GOLD medal!

We are back (oh no you're not!!!)

Indian Queens Pantomime Society are so happy to announce that our 2023 pantomime will be

Dick Whittington

The panto will run from the 6th to the 11th February 2023

Our auditions will be on the 10th July at Indian Queens Victory Hall from 10am for Children over 7 years old and 11am for cast and chorus

We hope to see you there!

Respectful Parking

Please be respectful when parking your vehicle at drop off and collection times within the Suncrest Estate and Harvenna Heights.

We thank you for your continued support.
