

- Before you listen to the songs
- Look at the titles— what do you think will be similar about both songs?
- What makes a good friend?
- Why do you think it is important to have good friends and be a good friend?

KSI— Reading/Writing Activities

Listen to these two songs:

You've got a friend in me—
Toy Story

Explore the songs

- Can you learn one of the songs to perform to your family?
- Watch the scene from each film where the song plays.
- Clap along to the beat of the song

Discussion questions

1. In 'You've got a friend in me' it says "If you've got troubles, then I've got them too" - what do you think this means?
2. What, according to the genie, makes him a good friend?
3. How are the songs similar or different?
4. Which song do you prefer and why?

Writing opportunities

1. Write a letter or postcard to a friend you haven't seen or spoken to for a while.
2. Write a 'recipe' for a great friend. What type of qualities should they have?
