

English

Investigating myths from the Mayan civilisation and comparing them to Cornish fables.

Narrative poetry linked to the cultures of the time.

Researching the achievements of key scientists.

Mathematics

Using the Ready to Progress Criteria, we will deepen our understanding of place value number facts to aid us with our calculations.

Compare and contrast the Mayan number system and calendar.

Accurately measure ingredients to follow a traditional recipe.

Geography and History

To learn about the ancient civilisations of Central and South America in contrast to our own civilisation.

To understand the human and physical geography of Mexico.

Year 6

Curriculum Pathway to Success

Summer 1 2021

PSHCE

Being the Best by making positive life decisions and thinking about the consequences of actions.

Stranger danger and how to stay safe

Physical Education

Striking and fielding including key skills of bowling and fielding.

Athletics - measuring and improving performance.

Wow Moment

Planning and preparing an authentic Mayan food and exploring ancient ruins virtually.

Art and Design

Sculpture linked to the Mayan art in the form of soap carving.

An appreciation of tone and shadow in drawing.

Science

Animal adaptation and classification linked to arid environments.

The taxonomy of key species linked to Central and South American animals.

Religious Education

People of God - how individuals have shaped their life through their religious beliefs.

Computing

Staying safe online and the hazards of social media.

Learning to debug and refine code in real world applications.

Music

Charanga unit—Music and Me where we write lyrics and appraisal the work of modern female artists.