

Reading Newsletter

Welcome to our Summer Holiday Reading Newsletter! This newsletter's theme is Mystery—we will be recommending our best mystery novels for all ages! You can also find exciting teacher interviews, challenges and an author spotlight on an award-winning mystery author. Enjoy!

This year's Summer Reading Challenge is all about 'Wild World Heroes'! They have teamed up with WWF for a special nature-themed challenge that will inspire you to stand up for the planet. Visit the Summer Reading Challenge 2021 website to sign up and create a profile, access exciting book recommendations and review books to unlock badges. You can also play games and enter competitions. Don't forget to share what you've been up to with your new teacher in September.

Summer Reading Challenge 2021

WILD WORLD
HEROES

Interview with.....Miss Harris

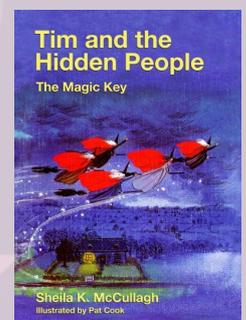

1. If you could invite any book character to dinner, who would they be and why?

I think I would like to have dinner with the characters Moon Face and Silky from the Magic Faraway Tree, but it would have to be at Moonface's house because I would love to try the different lands at the top of the tree and the slide to the bottom!

2. What was your favourite book when you were younger?

When I was younger I read a series of reading books called 'Tim and the Hidden People' which I adored, as Tim could see a whole community of people that no-one else knew were there and he lived a life full of adventures. I also loved 'The BFG' because I thought that it was very funny when the BFG made up his own words like whizzpoppers.

3. When is your favourite time to read a book?

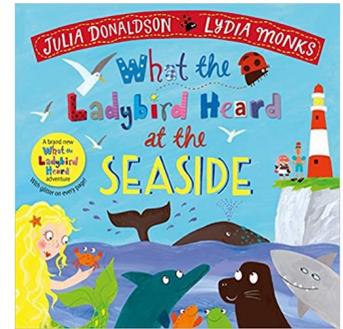

I ALWAYS read lying in bed before I go to sleep as I find it really relaxing, I also like to read on the beach in the summer, but to be honest I would read all day everyday if I could!

EYFS

The clever little ladybird is off on a trip to the seaside, but those two bad men, Hefty Hugh and Lanky Len, are also back and they're up to their wicked ways again. This time they're planning to steal the mermaid's long, luscious hair and sell it to a famous star . . . luckily, the crime-busting ladybird has another cunning plan to stop the thieves!

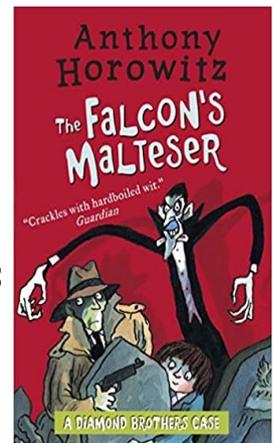

Key Stage 1

Stanley Lambchop was just an ordinary boy – until a notice-board fell on him. Now he's flat as a pancake! Being flat is fantastic – he can be rolled up, sent in the post and even fly like a kite. But it's not all fun and games . . . there are thieves in town. Can Flat Stanley be a hero? Follow the story of Flat Stanley and how his detective skills help save the day.

Lower Key Stage 2

Meet the Diamond Brothers, the world's most defective detectives, by the author of the number one bestselling Alex Rider series. When a dwarf comes into the office and leaves a package, Tim Diamond, the world's worst private-detective, is faced with his toughest case yet. The office is ransacked and the package is found to contain simply a box of Maltesers. Who was the dwarf ... and why was he murdered?

Upper Key Stage 2—Author Spotlight

Violet never wanted to move to Perfect. Who wants to live in a town where everyone has to wear glasses to stop them going blind? And who wants to be neat and tidy and perfectly behaved all the time? But Violet quickly discovers there's something weird going on – she keeps hearing noises in the night, her mum is acting strange and her dad has disappeared. When she meets Boy she realizes that her dad is not the only person to have been stolen away... and that the mysterious Watchers are guarding a perfectly creepy secret!
